

Luís Moniz Pereira, born 1947 in Lisbon, is Professor of Computer Science and Director of the AI centre at Universidade Nova de Lisboa. Doctor honoris causa by T.U. Dresden, and ECCAI Fellow, he coordinates the Erasmus Mundus European MSc in Computational Logic at UNL, is vice-president of EASE, the European Association for Semantic Web Education, and belongs to the Board of Trustees and to the Scientific Advisory Board of IMDEA – Madrid Advanced Studies Institute (Software).

His research interests centre on Knowledge Representation and Reasoning and the Cognitive Sciences. He was the founding president of the Portuguese AI association, and has been a founding member of the editorial boards of J. Logic Programming, J. Automated Reasoning, New Generation Computing, Theory and Practice of Logic Programming, J. Universal Computer Science, J. Applied Logic, Electronic Transactions on AI, Computational Logic Newsletter, Intl. J. Reasoning-Based Intelligent Systems (Advisory-Editor), and is Associate Editor for Artificial Intelligence of the ACM Computing Surveys. For more details: <http://centria.fct.unl.pt/~lmp/>